Introduction to Worship

Though the word trinity is not found in the scriptures, today's second reading includes the apostolic greeting that begins the liturgy: the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. In the Gospel Jesus sends his disciples forth to baptize in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. More than a doctrine, the Trinity expresses the heart of our faith: we have experienced the God of creation made known in Jesus Christ and with us always through the Holy Spirit. We celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity in word and sacrament, as we profess the creed, and as we are sent into the world to bear witness to our faith.

Song: "How Majestic is Your Name"

Reading: Psalm 8 Avery Mansmann, Taylor Mansmann
King David meditates upon the grandeur of the night sky and man's seeming insignificance in comparison with it. But his faith reminds him that man is made in God's image and is thus greater than the rest of God's natural creations. For this reason, man is given dominion over the natural world, but only at a price. Man's first and last thoughts, as they are in the psalm, must be of God.
